Event Rules

1. First named teams will practice first and play red rocks
2. Pre-game practice will begin at the scheduled game time
3. Practice will be 5 mins followed by 2 draw shots (1 Clockwise & 1 Counter Clockwise)
4. In the event of a tie after 8 ends in all pool games, 1 player from each team will throw a draw shot to determine a winner
5. Extra end will be played in all playoff games
6. Points will be awarded in the following way:
 - a. 3 points for a win outright
 - b. 2 points for a shootout win
 - c. 1 point for a shootout loss
 - d. 0 points for losing outright
7. Teams are ranked within each group based on the following:
 - a. Total points
 - b. Head-to-head result
 - c. DSC (counting the best 9)
8. Teams with a coach may consult once per game for 60s
9. Time clocks will not be used but teams must keep reasonable pace
10. Positioned rocks are pre-determined for pool game. Teams may play with any of the other 6 rocks
11. Teams with a bye may use that session for practice
12. Positioned rocks for the playoff games will be the choice of the teams
13. In all playoff games the higher ranked team will have choice of first practice & rock placement in the first end or second practice & rock colour
14. In all playoff games where the teams are equal ranked (i.e. A1 vs B1), the team with the best DSC will have choice of rock colour or practice. A draw shot will determine choice of rock placement in the first end
